

PLEASE let the New Jersey law stand. The Federal law has a loophole: it allows businesses to contact any person on the Do Not Call list who they have conducted business with during the last 18 months. This makes the Federal law virtually meaningless. The New Jersey law does not include this exemption. Our only defense is the New Jersey law. PLEASE let it stand!